My dearest Mother,

I have been thinking of you many times this morning. Somehow I have counted so bad to be with you for a few minutes. Yesterday afternoon I received a letter from you dated Apr 1st and also one from Aunt Mattie of Mar 29th. Both were well appreciated. It is certainly the greatest pleasure of all "over here" to receive letters from home. Then Mother, you always, I want most. I was glad you received my letters and up to this time I have written very regularly and hope to write often till the time but there is so much delay that you must not look for them to come regularly but they will probably come in bunches.

Don't worry about me for I will get along O.K. but especially pray that I may perform rightly every little of my duties. And that I be especially careful not to make any mistakes in my calculations of firing data, God forbid that I lose or cause to be lost the life of my men. I had a thousand times rather be shot than to make such mistakes.

Mother, there are so many things to look after and look out for.

I thank God for being with a fine Captain like the one I am with. He is there in every way.

Mother, I love you, why I long to be back with you. You the queen of all Mothers, there is no superior Mother any where. God help me to come halfway up to your expectations.
I know that over here is the place for me. Much love to Lucia, Dad and the Boys.

Your devoted son,
R. Joyce.
